

I support Local Number Portability, because it would allow me to keep my same phone number, no matter who I chose as my phone company. I feel we should be allowe this flexibility to choose. I have had the same phone number for years and there are too many friends and relatives that I would have to inform if I wanted to change phone companies and get a new phone number. Thanks!